

BOARD FOR GLOBAL EHS CREDENTIALING

Dr. Ulric Chung to Step Down as Board for Global EHS Credentialing (BGC) CEO

After more than eight years serving as the BGC/ABIH CEO, Dr. Ulric Chung has announced that he will be stepping down. The Board thanks Dr. Chung for his professionalism and years of service to the organization and professions represented by the credentials BGC administers. Dr. Chung has provided leadership as the former ABIH, now BGC, has grown from its initial focus on the CIH credential to managing programs for Environmental, Product Stewardship, and Environmental Health and Safety auditors. He provided leadership through the COVID pandemic when unique challenges were presented for Diplomates and those applying for a credential. Dr. Chung has provided exceptional passionate leadership to the organization throughout his 8 years as CEO. BGC has secured the services of an interim CEO, Leslie Long. Ulric will be working with her through this transition.
